Mobile-8 Introduces Champion Tariff Rp10,- Per Second to All Operators and IDD 01068

Enjoy Talking All Night Long...the Longer, the Cheaper It Gets!

JAKARTA, May 3rd, 2007 – Following the introduction of the new tariff scheme on early March 2007, PT Mobile-8 Telecom Tbk (Mobile-8) which is well known with its brand product Fren, now introduces a promotional tariff program called the Champion Tariff, introducing one tariff Rp10,- per second, to enable the customers in enjoying Fren connection experience to others up to June 15, 2007.

Mobile-8 Chief of Marketing Officer for Marketing and Strategy Loh Keh Jiat said, “The Rp10,- per second promotional tariff is part of our new tariff scheme that was introduced on early March 2007 as part of our appreciation to all of our subscribers. By using this promotional tariff, the subscriber can now talk as long as they wish with cheaper rate to either other cellular operator, fixed line operator, or make an international dial 01068 phone call to eight favorite countries.”

This new promotional Champion Tariff program is also designed in a simple and affordable scheme, starts on the 6th minute onwards. Thus the longer the conversation, the cheaper it gets, added Loh.

Especially for the international dial 01068 service, the promotional Champion Tariff program is available for eight countries including United States, Canada, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, South Korea, Singapore, and Malaysia.

The complete details of the new promotional tariff program are as follows:

Category	Tariff up to Sixth Minute	Tariff Above Sixth Minute

▪ From Fren to Other Cellular Operator (local and non-local)	Rp20,- per second	Rp10,- per second
