Mobile-8 Now Offers Better Value in Its New Tariff Talking All Night Long... to Any Operator, Anytime, Anywhere

JAKARTA, March 2nd, 2007 – Welcoming the first quarter of 2007, PT. Mobile-8 Telecom Tbk. (Mobile-8) - a publicly listed CDMA-based telecommunication company known with its brand image Fren, announced a new better tariff to allow all customers in enjoying an easy telecommunication experience starting on March 3rd, 2007.

Mobile-8 Chief Operating Officer Chee Pok Jin said, “We are pleased to announce this new tariff to accommodate the need of our customers. By using Fren, now all customers can make outgoing phone calls to other telecommunication operators with a more economical tariff, as well as outgoing phone calls to any fixed line numbers with one tariff anytime, anywhere. The new tariff is also specially designed for our customers in a more simple rate method, as to avoid confusion among our customers. As a result, we believe that the customers can now easily understand and enjoy the benefits from our per second charging. In addition, this program is also in line with our company’s strategy to undertake a national roll-out plan to other areas outside Java, in which the first phase has already been started this year.”

A full detail of the new tariff is as follows:

Pre Paid
From Fren to Fren	Rp300 / 30 second (for first and second minute)	Rp5 / 30 second (from third minute onward)
From Fren to Fixed Line (local and non-local)	Rp25 / second
From Fren to Other Operator (local and non-lokal)	Rp20 / second
Post Paid
From Fren to Fren	Rp255 / 30 second (for first and second minute)	Rp5 / 30 second (from third minute onward)
From Fren to Fixed Line (local and non-local)	Rp22 / second
From Fren to Other Operator (local and non-local)	Rp17 / second

Chee Pok Jin is optimistic that the launch of this new tariff will further boost-up the number of Mobile-8's customers, which is targeting to achieve four million customers by end of 2007.

To further enhance its customer-oriented services, Mobile-8 had also recently announced that it had expanded its overseas network by cooperating with nine GSM international operators in the Asia Pacific region in providing international SMS services. Through this new service, customers can now receive and send international SMS to their relatives, families and friends outside Indonesia.
